

Automotive Hall of Fame Announces Sandy Hudson as Vice President of Business Development

DEARBORN, Mich., July 25, 2024 - The Automotive Hall of Fame announces Sandy Hudson as their new vice president, Business Development. In this newly created role, Sandy will be responsible for all revenue-generating activities and strategic partnerships for AHF, including earned income, donations, grants, and corporate gifts, as well as the organization's marketing activities.

"I am thrilled to welcome Sandy to the AHF team, said Sarah Cook, president, AHF. "His experience and knowledge will contribute to the ongoing evolution of our organization."

Sandy has extensive leadership experience. He spent much of his 30-plus-year career in the healthcare industry. In 2015, he started his own management services consulting firm, AEGLE Group LLC. Sandy also had a hand in starting a non-profit organization alongside former IndyCar driver, Robby Buhl, called "Teen Street Skills," a training program that teaches new teen drivers to deal with adverse situations.

"The AHF has an outstanding heritage of recognizing the people who have made the automotive industry what it is today. I look forward to helping elevate the institution and help usher in the next generation of industry leaders and innovators," said Hudson.

Automotive Hall of Fame (AHF) is a non-profit organization that honors and celebrates the automotive/mobility industry's leaders and innovators through awards and programs that challenge young and old alike to higher levels of personal achievement. Founded in 1939, the Automotive Hall of Fame has honored 755 awardees from around the world, who have impacted and influenced the automotive and mobility industries.

The Automotive Hall of Fame is located at 21400 Oakwood Blvd in Dearborn, Michigan and is open to the public Thursdays – Sundays, 10 a.m. - 4 p.m. You can also visit the Automotive Hall of Fame online at automotivehalloffame.org or on our Facebook and Instagram pages.
